About Beyt Dwarka

The iconic temple is located on a small island off the coast of Dwarka and is accessible via Okha. Lord Krishna is said to have lived here when he arrived. Bet Dwarka (Beyt Dwarka) is also known as Shankhodhar and is a popular pilgrimage site near Okha in Gujarat. It is a small island about 30 kilometres from Dwarka and technically located in the Gulf of Kutch. It is well-known for more than just the Bet Dwarka temple.

The island also contains two significant Dargahs, one Gurudwara, and a Hanuman temple. Guru Vallabhacharya is credited with establishing the temple. Other temples in the complex honour Hanuman, Vishnu, Shiva, Lakshmi Narayan, Jambavati, Devi, and other deities.
